

Arabic Manuscript
Written by the Sayyid Mahmud-Fakhry
A.H. 1263 = A.D. 1864

Containg extracts from the Traditional Sayings. The first line, in Thuluth, reads "Be merciful, and ye shall find mercy at the hands of the merciful. Be merciful on earth, and ye shall find mercy in Heaven." The remaining lines are in Naskh, and affixed is the placit of two master caligraphists.

AC 32

Contain extracts from the Traditional Sayings. The first line, in Thúluth, reads: "Be merciful, and ye shall find mercy at the hands of the Merciful. Be merciful to those on earth, and ye shall find mercy in heaven." The remaining lines are in Naskh, and affixed is the placit of two master caligraphists. Written by the Sayyid Mahmûd-Fakhry, A.H. 1263 = A.D. 1864.